

The Department of Psychology regularly organizes and participates in academic, co-curricular, and extension activities such as workshops, seminars, research paper presentations, awareness programs, and study tours. These activities enhance students' academic knowledge, research skills, professional competencies, and social awareness. Link attached.